Original unpublished manuscripts in areas of basic and applied biological sciences including biomedicine are invited for peer reviewed in the upcoming issues of *Biosc.Biotech Res.Comm.

Why publish with us?

- Biotech. Res. Comm. is the only official multi-disciplinary publication of a Registered Non Profit Society for Science and Nature Bhopal, India, since last 13 years, having both print and online ISSN. The Academic Society (SSN) has been publishing only a single journal to maintain its high standards, since its inception ie 2008.
- It has a very strong internationally acclaimed editorial board of scientists, academicians and researchers comprising a rigorously monitored two tier manuscript reviewing system.
- Time to publication is 45-60 days from receiving the manuscript, with every MS undergoing a quick peer review process. Early On -Line Upcoming Issue hosts the peer reviewed accepted articles for viewing www.bbrc.in
- Open and free access to researchers with international indexing, ensuring more citations with a lifetime hosting service and a search engine friendly system.
- State of the art journal formatting and publication style with English language polishing.
- Modest Article Publishing Charges to maintain the cost of Open Access Publication. Significant waivers in APC are available for scholars from developing countries.
- To prepare manuscripts for publication in Biosc.Biotech.Res.Comm. please see detailed instructions to Authors visit our website www.bbrc.in
